PIONEER LIVERY BARN DESTROYED

ONE LIFE LOST IN FIRE

Four Horses Perish In Early Morning Blaze

Fire was discovered in the Pioneer Barn, about 4.15 Monday morning, but had made too much headway for to save the building. In less than half an hour the entire structure was a mass of seething flames. The most distressing feature of the catastrophe was the death of Emil Kropuenske, painter and paper-hanger, whose charred body was taken from the ruins about seven o'clock. He was sleeping in the mow and was suffocated, as the remains were found directly below where he had been lying. Three others who were in the building managed to escape. Four horses and two pigs were destroyed in the fire, one team being the property of W. Sleightholm.
The loss will total close to $5000 with $2000 insurance. The ~~building was owned by Geo. H.~~ Earl and rented by Bob Fawcett

BUSY BIDEFORD

Mr. and Mrs. Lake and family left for their old home in Montana, last week. They will be missed by us all.

The Stork has visited Bideford and left a beautiful baby boy at the home of John and Mrs. McLeod.

Rev. Brett preached an excellent sermon on "Labor", last Sunday, and elaborated in the truism that "Satan finds some mischief still [illegible] do." Don't be idle. See the Red Cross Secty and beat the devil to it. Lots of work for those who have idle hands.

Alex. and Mrs. Stinson have left for Alix. The Livery Barn is now in the hands of Mr. Watling.

The Farmers Elevator is open on Wed., Thurs. and Friday, with Mr. Rudolph, Compeer, in charge.

Miss Evelyn Staley left town to take a position in Horizon, where she will engage in post-office work. Evelyn is sure to succeed as she is a bright intelligent girl, and a general favorite.

Margaret Conquest has returned to Government House, Regina, and will resume studies at Regina College.

A duck supper, is in the wind, to celebrate the tennis tournament.

French Farmers Saved The Day

The saving farmer is a national asset. Canadian progress to-day in all lines attests magnificently to the splendid qualities of thrift that have marked the farmers in all the provinces. The total returns from field crops and animal produce have been only possible because of the disposition to make use in an economical way of all the wonderful gifts of Providence in this good land of ours.

The same was abuntantly true after 1870 in France when the frugal, thrifty farmers of that fair land made it possible for the Republic to pay off that hated German war indemnity of two billion francs levied on them. The same spirit of national thrift built up France for the extreme test to-day—a test that is being tried by fire.

Thanks be, French heroism is proving true. The line is holding. The blood of the farmers is flowing equally as well thru the veins of France's daughters of the soil and so the national strength bends but does not break.

Canada is reaping her harvests of increased returns and money is being made as never before. Our farmers are earning the gratitude of all for their splendid efforts at production. That they will carry into their savings an equal foresight in conserving their surpluses against the future days of darkness and lower prices will be equally praiseworthy. He is well advised who saves his extra dollar until he sees which way the winds of tomorrow will blow. Adversity blows a chill blast where there is no dollar in the savings.

POINTERS

Too many blows will extinguish the light of love.

Solitaire is one of the few games that two cannot play.

No man is a coward who has been married more than once.

It doesn't take much work to convince a man that he needs a rest.

A girl that flirts is like a counterfeit coin — she never gets the true ring.

Even after a man reaches his bottom dollar he usually has something to build hopes upon.

Just because there are sermons in stone it doesn't follow that there are rocks in preaching.

When a man is in love he is either so happy or so miserable that he does not care what happens.

The man who tried to buy his way into heaven may discover later that he gave money to an unauthorized representative.

The average country woman looks at a restaurant bill of fare as if she were trying to pick out something to eat that wouldn't poison her.

Municipal District of Stewart No. 302

The Seventh Meeting of the Council of the R. M. of Stewart No. 302, was held at Monitor on Monday August 26th.

Councillors present: Peterson, Bowman, Shannon, Noad and Partridge.

A petition, signed by a large number of ratepayers, was presented to the Council, and after considerable discussion the following Bylaw was passed:

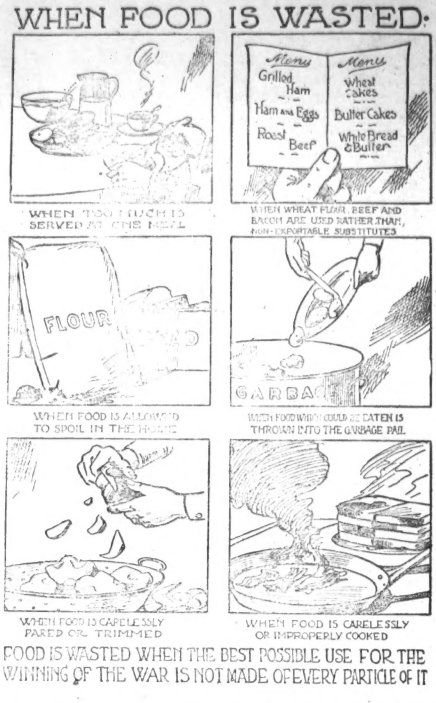
"That owing to the shortage of feed in this Municipal District of Stewart, No. 302, the Council enacts as follows: That no person, either by himself or by his agent, shall bring stock into this Municipal District for the purpose of letting them run at large on the open range within this Municipal District, unless the said person is a ratepayer of the Municipal District of Stewart, No. 302, for the year 1918."

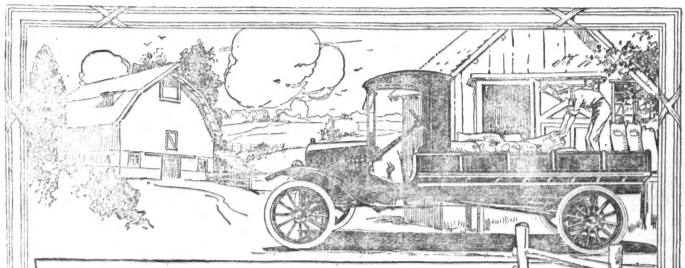
"Any person convicted of a breach of this Bylaw shall be subject to the penalties imposed by the Bylaw providing for the enforcement of the By-laws of the Municipal District of Stewart, No. 302."

Done and passed in Council assembled at Monitor, this 26th day of August, 1918.

Thos Partridge, Reeve
Jas H. Norton, Sec-Treas.

Next meeting will be held at Consort on October 14th.





What Will You Do For Help?

FARM help is scarce, but this condition can be relieved to a marked degree by using machines that accomplish more work in a given time with less man power.

Why should the farmer cling to horses—a slow, expensive means of power—when every other business is adopting the truck and thereby reducing the cost of hauling, speeding up deliveries, and saving for human needs the food that the horses would otherwise consume?

The motor driven truck can work constantly at maximum load under the burning summer sun, or in the coldest weather. Unlike the horse it needs no rests while working, it eats only while in actual use, and when the day's work is done it requires very little attention, and leaves you free for other "Chores" about the place. Then, it can be housed in one-quarter the space of the horses, wagon and harness it replaces.

It is a mistaken idea that a truck is useful only for driving upon paved roads. The Ford can be driven all over the farm, and used for hauling grain, potatoes, fruit, roots, fertilizer, wood, stock, milk or any other product. The speed it travels, the time it saves, and its low upkeep cost appeal very strongly to all users of the Ford Truck. If you need help, order your Ford One Ton Truck today.

Note and Comment

That some form of fire protection should be provided, in town, was again brought to the minds of the citizens when the Pioneer Barn went up in smoke, during the early hours of Monday morning. Outside of a few hand extinguishers there is absolutely nothing provided in the way of apparatus, pails, or a sufficient water supply. At one time in the town's history some pails and ladders were to be found, when needed, but it appears that some of the citizens 'needed' them for other purposes, and they have went.

A woman can take a feather and wear it one side of her hat one day, and on the other side another day, on the front of her hat another day and on the back another. She can wear it curled around the rim, under the rim, across the crown or straight up in the air, and it looks just as natural as turkey tracks. But if a man happens to put his hat on back side foremost he looks like a d——n fool.

In this country the women are divided into two main classes — those who don't believe all their husbands tell them and those who haven't any husbands.

Funny, isn't it—the merchant who is everlastingly kicking at the farmers for sending money to mailorder houses is frequently the man who orders printing supplies from outside firms; and generally without asking the local printer if he can supply the goods — which he usually can. —Castor Advance.

Before the war, the people of Great Britain paid about $1,000,000,000 a year by way of taxation; to-day they are paying taxes annually to the tune of $3,270,000, and yet, for her third war loan, Great Britain raised $5,000,000,000 — a sum equal to nearly half her entire national income in 1914.

Keeping Biennial Vegetables For Seed

By the term "biennial" is meant one which takes two seasons to produce seed, writes the Dominion Horticulturist in a leaflet giving advice on the "Selection and Wintering of Bienial Vegetables for Seed" which can be had free from the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. The vegetables must be stored over the first winter and replanted for seed production the following spring. Some well-known vegetables of this class are beets, cabbage, carrots, celery, parsnips, salsify and turnips. Seeds from these can easily be grown in Canada if the vegetables to be so used are kept in good condition over the winter. The methods of wintering vegetables for seed will vary in different parts of the country, but in most places it will be necessary to give them some protection. When possible, it is best to store them in a frost-proof cellar.
